

managingchange

Managing Change is a business coaching company working with organisations to optimise the performance of their people and their contribution to the organisation. We specialise in:

leadership and executive development talent management career transition and outplacement

Using extensive management development and advanced business psychology we work with individuals and teams to enhance performance and realise potential. This may be through our management and leadership development programmes or through focused attention on a specific development area such as communication and interpersonal skills, emotional intelligence, or personal productivity. We work with leaders and executives at all stages of the 'people cycle' whether on joining the company, performing in the role, or exiting.

what we do

Our expertise can be accessed through one-to-one sessions, group/team workshops and coached programmes in areas including:

- Management and leadership skills
- Interpersonal/communication skills
- Competency development/behaviour change
- Personal/team productivity
- Career counselling and outplacement

our people

Managing Change was established in 2005 by Sarah Jagers to provide focused, expert and reputable business coaching services to private and public sector organisations. As lead coaching consultant, Sarah combines her management experience and psychological training to provide challenging, creative and pragmatic advice and guidance. Sarah is supported by an excellent team of experienced executive coaches. All are highly trained and qualified consultants with considerable coaching experience built both in coaching practice and senior management experience. We share a commitment to working in close partnership with our clients to deliver high quality development services.

our clients

We work with a wide range of organisations in both the private and public sectors, throughout East Anglia and the South East of England. These include Bidwells, Cambridge Assessment, DaimlerChrysler, Dante, Genzyme, Heritable Bank, MedImmune, Morgan Stanley, Orthomimetics, Westminster Kingsway College.
